The established zones may increase in size if unforeseen events occur. All officers who are above the established zone remain eligible for promotion. Officers with approved retirements or who are under investigation are not eligible for consideration. Officers with approved resignations are considered above the zone; all other officers are eligible. The Director, NOAA Corps may authorize the OPB to consider officers below the established zone. The number of officers below the established zone who may be considered for promotion may not exceed 20% of the established zone size.

All Officer Evaluation Reports (OER), Certificates of Training for promotion, OOD letters for promotion, and any additional information you wish to include in your OPF must be received in this office not later than February 15, 2006. You are also required to review the entire contents of your OPF online prior to February 24, 2006.

Reserve Officers Association Mid-Winter Legislative Conference

Washington Hilton and Towers Hotel Washington, DC from February 5-8, 2006

To All Officers in the D.C. Area:

A Joint Services Luncheon will be held on Monday, February 6 from 1200-1415 at which time the NOAA Corps ACO Junior Officer of the Year Award will be presented. Additionally, from 1545-1700 that afternoon, a room has been reserved at the hotel to discuss NOAA Corps topics. Details about the meeting will be announced in the CyberFlash next Friday. Your attendance and participation at the conference and the NOAA Corps topics meeting is requested.

CPC is also calling for volunteers to help staff the NOAA Corps booth. If you would like to assist please contact Commander William B. Kearse; William.Kearse@noaa.gov or Nicole Manning; Nicole.Manning@noaa.gov no later than January 19th, 2006.

Excellence in Government

Washington Hilton and Towers Hotel, Washington, DC from July 10-11, 2006

Excellence in Government is the premier conference for key executives and managers who run our federal government. For two days this summer, the largest assembly of federal officials will come together to develop and discuss best management practices and achieve success through innovative solutions.

Thirty breakout sessions will allow attendees to customize their own experience and to leave EIG with tools they can use immediately. The conference also encourages attendees to examine and evaluate their current practices and to launch new initiatives. For more information on the conference: <http://www.excelgov.org/>
